Dear Oldies Lover,

Well . . . It's here . . . the final volume of The Roots of Rock and Roll. February 22 marks our 40th volume in the series and we're going out with a bang at the Benedum Theater. Thanks to our many loyal friends who never miss a show. Your support has kept us going all these years, and we truly appreciate your patronage. We are proud to announce that Eat'n Park is our title sponsor.

We've saved the best for last—featuring many of your all-time favorites, including several Pittsburgh groups who put our city on the map and did us proud in the “Oldies Capital of the World.”

Jimmy Beaumont & The Skyliners have thrilled audiences for six decades with their many hits, including Since I Don't Have You, This I Swear, and Pennies From Heaven, to name just a few. Like a great vintage wine, Jimmy is singing better than ever.

Pittsburgh never tires of hearing Kenny Vance & The Planotones. Your questionnaire responses tell us that you want to hear Looking for an Echo one more time on our big stage.

Our audience will be singing along with the familiar tunes of Shirley Alston Reeves and the girls when they reprise The Shirelles' favorites Mama Said, Tonight's the Night, Soldier Boy, Will You Love Me Tomorrow, and more hits from their prolific repertoire.

Our own Pittsburgh Marcels will grace our stage. They're international stars who surely put the bomp in the bomp sh'bomp ba bomp with their renditions of Blue Moon, Heartaches and more.

By popular request we're welcoming the return of the lovely ladies of doo wop—The Chantels, who will reprise their hits Maybe, The Plea, Look In My Eyes, and He's Gone.

“Mr. Entertainment,” Bobby Hendricks, will be sure to please the crowd with his Drip Drop and Itchy Twitchy feeling.

He's been out of circulation on the oldies circuit for a little while, but we're excitedly anticipating the return of Kid Kyle, another Pittsburgh favorite. He's sure to perform some of our most beloved tunes.

Pure Gold will once again do the honors as they bring up the curtain on The Roots of Rock and Roll. They've done so for every volume, in addition to backing many of the artists on the show with their authentic “Pure Gold” touch.

As always, the very best seats are reserved for our loyal mail-order customers, so mail early to reserve the best spot and to receive the discounted ticket price.

We are offering two new showtimes at 4:00 and 8:15, to best accommodate our audiences and to allow more time between shows. Go to the early show and enjoy a leisurely dinner afterwards, or dine before the show and attend the 8:15 performance. For best seating, choose the 8:15 p.m. show time at the $48.75 price, and return your order form as quickly as possible.

Treat yourself to one last walk down memory lane. Plan to bring your friends for the final farewell Roots of Rock and Roll in the intimate, warm atmosphere of the beautiful Benedum. In fact, tickets would make great gifts for all of the oldies lovers in your life.

As always, our best tickets are reserved for our mail-order clients and orders are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Please return your order form as quickly as possible for best seating.

We are grateful for your patronage. Your continued support of the Roots of Rock and Roll has kept the oldies alive through 40 volumes. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!
