Dear Oldies Lover,

The clock is ticking on the new year and on the ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL as we prepare to present VOLUME XXXVIII. Recently we announced on WQED that HJD Enterprises would produce only three more volumes of the ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL, Pittsburgh's longest running rock and roll series. That's just two more after this one, so we're cramming a lot of entertainment into just three shows. Please don't miss any of these historic events.

Following each ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL concert we scrutinize program questionnaires to determine your preferences, and your requests play a huge part in determining our lineup. We hope you're as excited about this year's bill as we are. We're sure that many of you watched the fabulous PBS My Music Series Concert, Rock, Pop and Doo Wop. Four of the artists we've invited for Volume XXXVIII are prominently featured on that wonderful concert.

If you watched Sonny Turner's Platters on the PBS special, you know what a consummate entertainer he is. Sonny joined The Platters in 1961 and sang lead on several of the group's hit recordings, including "With This Ring." Our March 3 show at The Benedum, will mark his very first appearance on a ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL, as the group faithfully revives timeless ballads, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," "Harbor Lights," "The Great Pretender," "Only You" and more.

Pittsburgh can't get enough of him but, remarkably, this is also the premier performance on a ROOTS show for Kenny Vance and The Planotones, who also appeared on Rock, Pop and Doo Wop. Kenny and the boys will perform their anthem "Looking For an Echo," as well as other favorites.

It's very hard to believe, but Herb Cox and The Cleftones have not been back to the ROOTS stage for 20 years. All we can say is . . . it's about time . . . time to hear "Lover Boy," "Little Girl of Mine," and "Heart and Soul."

Our home-grown stars, The Marcells, are paying us a visit for the first time in seven years and it'll be like "old home week" when they revive "Heartaches," and the beloved tune that put them on the rock and roll map, "Blue Moon."

Unbelievable!—The Dixie Cups have never visited our stage before either. "Chapel of Love" and "Iko Iko" were favorite up-beat tunes of the '60s. These ladies—including originals Barbara and Rosa Hawkins—will be rockin' The Benedum.

Speaking of home, everyone knows we're partial to Pure Gold, who set attendance records at venues in 2011. The Group is happy to open the ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL for their 38th time. They always set the tone for a marvelous evening.

Thirty-eight volumes! Where has the time gone? Where will you be for the next three volumes of the ROOTS OF ROCK AND ROLL? We're hoping you'll be in the luxurious comfort of one of the brand new seats in the elegant, intimate Benedum Center. Remember, the clock is ticking. We've lost so many of our musical heroes who were pioneers of this great genre. Don't miss out on the last few opportunities to see them live and take a nostalgic trip down memory lane. H.J.D.
