Dear Oldies Lover,

Happy New Year! It's hard to believe that in 2013 we're presenting Volume XXXIX of The Roots of Rock and Roll. When we produced our first show in 1980, we hoped to continue for ten editions, but because of your patronage we've had the privilege of bringing our beloved artists to Pittsburgh in four decades. You've no doubt heard that there will be only one more volume after this. We've lost so many of the pioneers of rock and roll that we've come to the decision that Volume XXXX in 2014 will be our last. We're hoping that you'll join us for a memory-filled evening on Saturday, February 23, at the Benedum Theater.

This year's lineup features perennial questionnaire favorites, Charlie Thomas' Drifters, reprising familiar hits, There Goes My Baby, Under The Boardwalk, Up On The Roof, Save The Last Dance For Me and more. We all sing along with every word of the Drifters' tunes.

They were Looking for an Echo and Pittsburgh audiences are always looking for Kenny Vance & The Planotones. It seems the 'burgh just can't get enough of this group—so we're happy to bring them to you in the intimate setting of The Benedum.

We're delighted to welcome back to our stage the "Ambassadors for Romance," Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductee, Terry Johnson and his Flamingos. Their numerous lush ballads include I Only Have Eyes for You, Lovers Never Say Goodbye, and Mio Amore.

It's been too long since their last visit, but on February 23 The Original Clovers featuring Harold Winley will thrill us when they recreate Blue Velvet and Love Potion #9.

From the first time we heard The Bossman play Desiree, we knew we loved The Charts. What a thrill it will be to hear them revive that Pittsburgh favorite on Volume XXXIX!

He has never performed Do You Close Your Eyes before a live audience, but Josh White, Jr., who performed as a folk singer all his life, has agreed to grace our stage with the one and only in-person rendition of that beloved tune.

We've welcomed A Thousand Stars over 39 volumes of The Roots of Rock and Roll. On February 23, we'll welcome the beautiful singer of that memorable hit when Kathy Young returns by popular demand.

Pure Gold will bring up the curtain on Volume XXXIX, as they have on every volume. "The Pride of Pittsburgh" celebrates 34 years of making the music they love . . . the music they love to bring to you.

We reserve the very best seats for our loyal mail-order customers, so mail early to reserve the best spot and to receive the discounted ticket price. We offer two shows at 5:00 and 8:30, to best accommodate our audiences. Go to the early show and enjoy a leisurely dinner afterwards, or take your time before the show and attend the 8:30 performance. For best seating, choose the 8:30 p.m. show time at the $45.75 price, and return your order form as quickly as possible.

Only two more volumes of The Roots of Rock and Roll remain. Many of our musical heroes are gone. Our favorite music will never die, but soon the Roots shows will be history. Plan to spend one more evening of reverie in the lovely, warm atmosphere of the magnificent Benedum.

As always, our best tickets are reserved for our mail-order clients and orders are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Please return your order form as quickly as possible for best seating.

We do everything with you in mind because we sincerely appreciate your patronage. You keep the true oldies alive through your continued support of the Roots of Rock and Roll. Thank you. H.J.D.
